Yanan,

I am surprised that this is even an issue. Is Netlist agreeing to deadlines it has no intention of complying with?

As I said earlier, Micron intends to comply with the Patent Rules and the DCO deadlines. That is why we are asking for a two-week extension on the technical document production under PR 3-4.

If this is not sufficient for Netlist, then we are at an impasse. Let me know ASAP.

Ryuk

Is Micron committing to getting source code ready for review on November 21? Thanks.
